Clarification on the Statement by Minister Gian Prakash Committee Report

SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA (West Bengal) : Madam, it is really very interesting to find the hon. Prime Minister in the House, listening to our discussion, may be, for the fust time. Such great importance is being given by him to the discussion that is taking place in this House. Otherwise, this House has always been considered not only as a Second Chamber, but also as a second-rate Chamber. I take the presence of the hon. Prime Minister as a sign of departure. The point. Madam, is : Is the Government seriously interested in having a discussion and formulating a national policy and approach with regard to corruption in high places and abuse of power and restoring accountability in the system which is un-mistakably disappearing at a rapid pace? If the Government is really interested in having a discussion on the issue, then, Madam, I believe it should have acted in a much different way. There could have been a debate and discussion, and the discussion could have been fruitful, if all the papers and the Report had been made available to us. From the very fact that the papers and the Report have not been made available to us. I am constrained to believe that there is an attempt to hold up, and, Madam, if I may use the word, an attempt to cover up. There is a much
